

New Women's Chair At Israel Bonds

Helene Herbstman was installed as Israel Bonds National Women's Division chair at the Midwest Regional Conference in Chicago, held June 6-7. The event, attended by nearly 350, resulted in over $4.6 million in Israel bond purchases. L-R: Immediate past Women's Division chair Sherrie Willner; Chicago general campaign chairman Dr. Burton Herbstman; Ms. Herbstman; Sally Oren, wife of Israeli Ambassador to the United States Michael Oren; national campaign cabinet chairman Bobbie Goldstein; conference co-chair Judy Yablond Judlo; and Bonds president and CEO Izzy Tapoohi.

Hungarian Officials Tour "Wallenberg Way"

NYC Councilman David Greenfield led Hungarian government officials and representatives of the Jewish community in Hungary on a tour of 13th Avenue in Brooklyn, which will be co-named "Wallenberg Way" by legislation introduced by David Greenfield and Brad Lander. They were joined by Brooklyn community leaders and members of the board of governors of the Wallenberg Commission. Above, Jonathan Zalisky; Sidney Greenberger; Ezra Friedlander; Gyorgy Szabo of the Jewish Heritage of Hungary Public Endowment; David Bohm of Hungary's Ministry of Foreign Affairs; Councilman Greenfield; Peter Rebenwuzel; Leon Goldenberg; and Simcha Eichenstein of the New York State Comptroller's office.

Your Key to Independence

HumanCare Services is proud to announce our new Supportive Group Residence, centrally located in Brooklyn.

Our Newest Home Provides:

- Responsible and caring part-time staff
- A safe and supportive living environment
- Skills to enhance independence — cooking, cleaning, budgeting, scheduling, maintaining a job, and more
- A beautiful apartment in a neighborhood setting

For more information or help on applying for an ISS or supportive apartment, call 718.854.2747 or visit us at 1042 38th Street in Brooklyn.

HumanCare
SERVICES

Bringing Promise to Life.