

Capitol Hill Luncheon Honors Efrat's 30th Anniversary

The 30th Anniversary Luncheon of Efrat on Capitol Hill

Yitzchok Breitowitz of Silver Spring, MD, Rabbi Abba Cohen,

(L-R) Honoree Hirsch Wolf, Dr. Schussheim, President, EFRAT, US Senator Richard Lugar (R-IN).

was held on Wednesday, April 25, 2007. The event featured addresses by Senator Mel Martinez (R- Fla), Rabbi Moetzes Gedolei Hatorah.

(L-R) Michael Schnitzler, Dr. Schussheim, President, EFRAT, US Senator Mel Martinez (R-FL), Honoree Woli Stern, Honoree Aaron Teitelbaum, Director, EFRAT USA, Chagai Goldschmidt, Agudath EFRAT.

Greetings were also brought by Rep. Jeff Fortenberry (R- Nebraska), Rabbi Levi Shemtov, Director of the Washington office of American Friends of Lubavitch, Rep. Trent Franks (R- Arizona), William Daroff, Vice President of United Jew-

He spoke movingly of the value of each individual life. "Just as people's faces are different, so too, they're opinions are different. However, we all agree that life has sanctity. He who saves a single Jewish life is ish Communities, Morton Klein, President of Zionist Organization of America, Rabbi Menachem Genack, CEO, OU Kashrus and Senator Jim DeMint (R- South Carolina).

(L-R) Michael Schnitzler, Ezra Friedlander, CEO, The Friedlander Group, Dr. Schussheim, President, EFRAT, US Senator Jim DeMint (R-SC), Honoree Woli Stern, Honoree Eduardo Ezban, Director, EFRAT USA, Honoree Aaron Teitelbaum, Director, EFRAT USA, Chagai Goldschmidt, Agudath EFRAT.

Dr. Eli Schussheim of Efrat enjoys relationships with several US Senators who respect his activities, Senators Jim Inhofe of Oklahoma and Richard Lugar considered to have saved the entire world."

Dr. Schussheim delivered heartfelt thanks to the many friends and supporters of Efrat, including luncheon

Chairman Woli Stern; Hirsch Wolf; Aaron Teitelbaum; Eduardo Ezban, and Ezra Friedlander of the Friedlander Group.