Nachas Health Network Honors Community Leaders

On Sunday, November 23, Nachas Health & Family Network, Inc. hosted its inaugural legislative breakfast. Hundreds of religious leaders, community philanthropists, and elected official came together to pay tribute to a number of elected officials and community members whose leadership is instrumental in allowing Nachas to fulfill its mission in ensuring that every child, family, and senior has access to quality health care and social services through direct services, referral entitlement navigation, and advocacy.

Nachas Health and Family Network is a not-for-profit community-based organization founded in 1990 by Rabbi Pinchus D. Horowitz, the Chuster Rav, to address the gap in health services facing the underserved immigrant and Jewish communities in Brooklyn. Nachas strives to help children, families, and seniors attain physical and psychological wellness in a dignified manner.

William Rapfogel, CEO of Metropolitan Council on Jewish Poverty, opened the program by introducing Rabbi Horowitz, who delivered greetings. The breakfast was coordinated by the Friedlander Group and chaired by Assemblyman Dov Hikind, whose advocacy and passionate support of Nachas is crucial to the success of the services and programs it offers to the community. Mr. Hikind also presented Douglas Jablon with the Community Hakoras HaTov Award and praised him as a true ba'al chesed for all his efforts as vice-president of patient relations and volunteer services at Maimonides Medical Center. Congressman Jerry Nadler presented the Community Tribute Award to Joe Lazar in appreciation of his facilitating important programs to assist Holocaust survivors.

Brooklyn Borough President Marty Markowitz warmly praised New York City Comptroller Bill Thompson and presented him with the City Leadership Award. The State Leadership Award was presented by Mr. Rapfogel to New York State Comptroller Tom DiNapoli. Douglas Heimowitz, director of Medicare, Health Plus, was the recipient of the Community Health Partner Award, which was presented by Councilman Bill de Blasio. Health Plus has been serving the community for many years and is singularly responsible for advancing the medical and health needs of Boro Park residents. Additional remarks were delivered by Congressman Ed Towns, State Senator Diane Savino, and Assemblyman Rory Lancman.

The City Leadership Award was also bestowed on Commissioner Jeanne Mullgrav of the NYC Department of Youth and Community Development (DYCD). The award was presented by Councilman Simcha Felder and accepted by Andrew Miller, DYCD's director of legislative affairs.

The highlight of the program was when Senate Democratic Leader Malcolm Smith—the presumed Senate Majority Leader—was introduced by Assemblyman Dov Hikind as a true mensch who has committed himself to support community initiatives. Senator Smith, a deeply religious man, praised Nachas for serving the public and pledged to do all he can to help Nachas in that regard. ❖

Bais Medrash Ateres Yisroel Pays Tribute To Rav Avrohom Blumenkrantz, zt'l

In the less than two years since the untimely petirah of HaRav Avrohom Blumenkrantz, zt'l, his shul, Bais Medrash Ateres Yisroel, has moved forward in an exciting and meaningful way. Under the leadership of his son, Rabbi Yisroel Meir Blumenkrantz, shlita, the shul is alive with heartwarming tefillos, shiurim, and a feeling of achdus which were the hallmark of the late rav.

Bais Medrash Ateres Yisroel will be hosting a melaveh malkah to be held iy'H on motzaei Shabbos kodesh, December 6, at the Ateres Nechama Liba Hall in Far Rockaway (613 Beach 9th Street).

The evening is dedicated to the memory of the unforgettable mar'a d'asra, Rav Blumenkrantz, zt'l. This gathering will give the Jewish community an opportunity to show their hakaras ha'tov to the longtime rav who served our community and Yidden everywhere with dedication and mesirus nefesh. Whether in the area of kashrus, Pesach, Torah counsel, or educating thousands of talmidos, the rav had a tremendous impact upon so many lives.

Attendees will hear from guest speaker Rav Dovid Goldwasser as well as view a moving video presentation. A Scroll of Honor is being prepared, listing the generous sponsors. Anyone interested in participating in this special tribute or in making a reservation should call 718-327-4680 or 718-327-4999. ❖

Local Residents Honored At Annual AMIT Dinner; Pre-Chanukah Gala, December 16

Trudy and Stanley Stern, residents of Lawrence, were honored at this year's annual AMIT dinner in New York City. More than 400 friends and supporters of AMIT were in attendance. All proceeds will benefit AMIT's network of more than 70 schools and programs serving over 20,000 children in 23 cities, development towns, and other communities throughout Israel.

Trudy and Stanley Stern exemplify the young couples who today play such a prominent role in the leadership of AMIT, helping to secure the future of the organization. Trudy is a founding member of the AMIT New Generation Board. She currently serves as a member of the AMIT board of directors and is a member of the AMIT development cabinet, as well as the Israel programming committee. She is also a founding member of the advisory board of Midreshet AMIT and was instrumental in the development of this very successful program. Trudy is an active leader in other community and civic organizations and is a partner in the law firm of Stern, Bryk, and Hoffman. Stanley Stern is head of banking for technology, defense, and financial institutions at Oppenheimer & Co., Inc. He is a former member of the Board of Education and current member of the executive board of HAFTR and presently serves as Long Island regional president of NORPAC, a pro-Israel political action committee. The Sterns have four children, Dana, Caroline, Erica, and Joseph.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Stern, honorees included Anne Bernstein of Los Angeles and John F. Fullerton III of Briarcliff Manor, New York. Tribute also was paid to Shulamith Cohn,
